Notice for Publication

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
SACRAMENTO, CAL.,
May 12, 1904.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT IN compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, WILLIAM H. BLAKELY, of Pine Grove, county of Amador, State of California, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No 1849, for the purchase of the N½ of SE¼, SW¼ of SE¼, Sec 26 and NW¼ of NE¼ of Sec. No 35, in Township No. 8 N., Range No. 14 E., M. D. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before Richard Webb, U. S. Commissioner at Jackson, Cal., on MONDAY, the 25th day of JULY, 1904.

He names as witnesses: Geo. H. Rinehart, of Pine Grove, Amador Co., Cal.; Otis W. Rinehart, of Pine Grove, Amador Co., Cal.; John Andrews, of Pine Grove, Amador Co., Cal.; T. A. Chichizola, of Amador City, Amador Co., Cal.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 25th day of July, 1904.

Organs Lost by Disuse.

It is a suggestive fact not always sufficiently considered that "as soon as any organ or faculty falls into disuse it degenerates and is finally lost altogether." Through all the ages that man has had the power of speech this power has not been fixed in us in any degree whatever by heredity. It is regarded as definitely proved that if a child of civilized parents were brought up in a desert place and allowed no communication whatever with man it would never make any attempt at speech.

Up to the last century it was not uncommon to find persons living in a wild state in the woods and forests of England, France, Germany and Russia who were utterly incapable of speech, though they could make sounds in imitation of the cries of wild animals. Certain parasitic insects have so completely degenerated that they possess neither eyes, legs, heads, mouths, stomachs nor intestines.—Leisure Hour.

YOUGHIOGHENY.

The Proper Way of Pronouncing This Indian Name.

Perhaps the most difficult geographical name in the United States is Youghiogheny, or geny, as it is sometimes spelled, the name of a creek in western Maryland and Pennsylvania. Few besides natives of the region pronounce it with the chief accent on the penultimate and who so essays it with the accent elsewhere finds his mouth filled with a meaningless confusion of vowels and consonants. The first syllable is "Yough," pronounced "Yo," with a short "o." The second is "i" short, the "o" following is almost if not quite unheard in the mouth of the native, while the last two syllables are those made familiar in "Alleghany," though there is even here a question of "a" long or "e" short.

The pronunciation of Youghiogheny is, however, a simple matter with the modern spelling compared to what it must have seemed to the stranger who met it with the old spelling. On an ancient map of the region the name is spelled "Yoghyyoyghgania." Doubtless this spelling came nearer than that now in use to indicating aptly the Indian pronunciation of the name.

The Palm Room.

"Why do they call it the palm room?" asked the bride as they entered the hotel dining room. "The palms are very few and only varnished ones."

"The waiters, the waiters, my dear. They all have palms, and they must be silvered by the guests."—Cleveland Leader.

Yourself.

The real opportunity for self improvement is not in the city or in the country or anywhere outside of you; it is in yourself. The initial impulse, or motive to do or to be, must come from within or nowhere.—Success.

Eggs In the Nest.

All birds have a systematic arrangement in depositing their eggs in the nest, and there are very few species, if any, in which some peculiarity is not to be seen, if careful observation is made. Many birds so plainly and invariably show a tendency to a set arrangement that their habit is generally known.

The Wing of a Bird.

The typical vertebrate limb, variously modified in the arm of a man or the fore limb of a cat or frog or bird, has one bone in the upper arm, which gives support to two in the forearm, which similarly yield to four at the wrist, and from these five digits can just comfortably be extended. The bird, however, decided to fly rather than grasp with its hand, so that three and a half fingers are all it has retained of the five which its reptilian ancestors bequeathed to it.

All Obscurities Removed.

The Rev. Dr. Fourthly—For twenty-seven years I have been trying to preach, but I confess I have never quite grasped the meaning of St. Paul in this particular passage. The Rev. K. Mowatt Laightly—Why, doctor, I cleared that all up in the first sermon I ever preached. I'll let you read it if you like.—Chicago Tribune.

Carlyle and Paint.

When Carlyle went to sit to Sir John Millais for his portrait in Millais' grand new house he turned on the stairway to ask, "Has paint done all this, Millais?" and, getting a smiling answer in the affirmative, remarked, "Ah, well, it shows what a number of fools there are in the world."

A Fishy Romance.

Mabel—So Jack Miller didn't marry Miss Herring after all? Judith—No. She rejected him. Mabel—How did Jack take it? Judith—Oh, he said there was as good fish in the sea as were ever caught out of it, and went after Miss Salmon.

How, Indeed?

Aunt Hattie—You shouldn't clean your nails in company, Tommy. Tommy—Huh! If nobody sees me clean 'em, how is anybody to know they are ever cleaned?—Boston Transcript.

Very Hard.

"Of course a horseshoe always means luck."

"Oh, yes, and if the horse passes it up to you behind your back it means hard luck."—Exchange.

Echoes in large rooms may sometimes be prevented by hanging heavy tapestry on the walls.

"A SECRET."

One great secret of youth and beauty for the young woman or the mother is the proper understanding of her womanly system and well-being. Every woman, young or old, should know herself and her physical make up. A good way to arrive at this knowledge is to get a good doctor book, such, for instance, as the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," by R. V. Pierce, M. D., which can readily be procured by sending twenty-one cents in one-cent stamps for paper-bound volume, or thirty-one cents for cloth-bound copy, addressing Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y.

The change from maidenhood to womanhood is one that involves the whole body. The strain at this time upon the blood-forming structures may be too great. Disorders of the functions peculiarly feminine are nearly always dependent upon defective nutrition. In all such cases Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is just the vegetable tonic for the female system.

"I cannot express my thanks for the benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. Julius Wehrly, of Cambridge, Dorchester Co., Md. "I took 'Favorite Prescription' and feel that a perfect cure has been effected. I feel like thanking you for the kind and fatherly letters which you wrote."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was the first exclusively woman's tonic on the market. It has sold more largely in the past third of a century than any other medicine for women. Do not let the druggist persuade you to try some compound that has not had the test of so many years' success.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription' whenever a laxative is required.

FRIDAY.....JUNE 24, 1904

NOTES OF DISCORD.

The unsatisfactory condition of the industrial world, incident to the frequency of labor strikes, is a prominent topic of conversation wherever one goes. On a trip to San Francisco the other day, two women were relating their experience. Both were married and had families. The husband of one was a machinist, who had been thrown out of a good job by the strike on the Santa Fe road. With his family he was visiting friends, waiting for the settlement of the trouble between the great railroad corporation and its striking employes, and hoping that the adjustment would soon be made that he might return to his work. The other lady was a miner's wife. Her husband had worked in Cuer de Lene district in Idaho, and also in the Colorado fields. The wages were good, and in the course of a few months they managed to save $600 or $700. A strike came along and they had to move to seek work elsewhere, and their savings were dissipated in a few weeks. This sort of experience had been repeated several times. No sooner had they got settled, and were getting a little ahead, than a strike was precipitated, compelling them to make a fresh start in life. It was evident from the conversation indulged in that the toilers were weary of this business; it was not to their taste. They began to realize that an organization instituted for their benefit, which is the fruitful source of inaugurating war instead of peace, is detrimental to their interests. The instances cited occurred in a small railroad depot among the few passengers therein awaiting transportation to their respective destinations. They serve to illustrate how widespread is the feeling, even among the army of organized labor, that the despotic methods of unionism to advance the cause of the workingman have signally failed to secure the promised industrial millennium. It is a moot question to-day if the real sentiment of the toiling masses were allowed free expression, whether it would not be found overwhelming in favor of the old-established system of every man's right to sell his labor wherever and for whatsoever he pleases, without let or hindrance of any organization whatever. The history of labor unions has been, and doubtless will continue to be, a never-ending round of organization, disruption and re-organization.

The governor of Pennsylvania has appointed Attorney-General P. C. Knox successor to the late Senator Mat Quay. The attorney-general has signified his intention to accept, which will necessitate the placing of a new man in the cabinet. President Roosevelt will no doubt secure the right man for the place.

Excitement in Amador.

A report was started in Amador Wednesday that 50 non-union men were to be brought to the Fremont-Gover from Placerville that evening. Excitement ran high, and rumors spread thick and fast. Trouble was scented from a distance, and a deputy sheriff was sent to prevent hostilities. It proved to be the usual boomerang. No one came, no trouble was had, and the deputy came home a sleepy man. Perhaps some one thought he was soon to lose an easy job.

ARCTIC TRAVEL

On the 12th of Feb., at 8 in the morning, the stage left Eagle for Dawson, distance 102 miles, fare $25. Four big horses drew a 4-seated sleigh with plenty of robes and eight passengers. Jack Downing, the driver, is an old "sour-dough," very proud of his team and reputation for getting in on time. The route is on the river, and great skill is required to avoid hummocks and crevices, the latter being especially dangerous. After the first freeze the river falls several feet, and the cracks, chasms, and sloping slabs of ice make travel quite risky. The ice that comes floating down before the freeze-up, sometimes piles up in the river bends more than 10 feet high.

We came 12 miles and crossed the 141st meridian into Canada. Ten miles further and we came to a road house, where we warmed, changed horses and had a good dinner. Just at dark we reached Forty Mile, where we passed the night and the custom house. At 7 a. m. were again on the road, with the same horses and three more passengers, who had come down from Jack Wade creek en route to the "outside." The thermometer showed 38° below zero, and our driver and three passengers had their faces frozen. Half way to Dawson, where we stopped for dinner and fresh horses, the body of a man had just been brought in who had frozen to death on the trail two miles away, but less than 80 rods from a wood cutter's cabin.

We arrived in Dawson at 7 in the evening. The following day, Feb. 14th, I celebrated my birthday by resting in my room in the hotel, only going out for meals. Feb. 16th I started on a bicycle for White Horse. The route lay up the Klondike for eight miles, then up Hunker creek 19 more, to the summit, beyond which is the head of Dominion creek. Nearly the whole distance placer mines are being worked every 500 feet or less. Seen from a short distance the great "dumps" of pay dirt resemble hay stacks. All along the route are saloons, stores and road houses, and the whole region is "humming." I stopped over night at the Summit hotel. Next morning six inches of fresh snow showed that the wheel was out of business for a week at least, so I put it on a stage that was just leaving for White Horse and took a seat by the driver. Dominion creek is 38 miles long, and just as lively as Hunker. These are two of the best creeks in the Klondike district. They have several towns, each having a few hundred people, with stores, churches, repair shops, etc. The next day we had left the mining region and entered the forests that cover the hills. The third day we crossed the Stewart river, which is navigable for steamboats, 265 miles from its confluence with the Yukon. Crossed the Pelly river four miles above its mouth at Fort Selkirk, where it unites with the Lewes and forms the Yukon proper. Fifty miles further up we crossed the Lewes, and did not strike it again until we reached White Horse, which is 330 miles by stage route from Dawson, fare $75, exclusive of meals and lodging, which average $5.50 per day. Three regular stages leave each end of the route every week, besides several extras. One day a strange object showed up in the distance, a square tent on a sleigh, with smoke coming through a hole in the roof. It was a cargo of fresh eggs en route to Dawson, which the owner expected to make money on if he could keep them from freezing. Several dogs followed our sleigh, and it was great sport to watch them chase rabbits, which were very plentiful. The light snow was over two feet deep. Rabbits could run on it, but the dogs would sink almost out of sight. Their hunting instinct would make them start after every rabbit they saw, but after floundering a few rods they would slink sheepishly back to the road, only to repeat the process the next time a rabbit appeared. The latter seemed to really enjoy the fun.

On nearly every stage we met I noticed one or more bicycles, but did not try to buy them although the owners were willing to sell. When the road is good a man can easily make 80 miles a day with a wheel.

After eight days of staging I reached White Horse, and never had a railroad look so inviting. Travel to the interior is the heaviest ever known at this season. Every day one or two stages start for Dawson, each carrying 11 passengers. A stampede is on to the Elsek diggings, 160 miles west of here, said to rival the Klondike but not yet so proven. Not more than one in ten of these stampedes profit any except the hotel and transportation men. Still it is not reasonable to suppose that Nome and the Klondike are the only very rich places in the north, and more bonanzas are liable to be struck any time.

On Feb. 28th I arrived in Skagway not much the worse for wear, and glad I had made the trip, but like the boy after a dinner of pusley greens, who liked what he had had but didn't want any more.

Sincerely,

C. H. G.

For a Hundred Years.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics, in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package, and accept no other. Sold by City Pharmacy.

Miscellaneous.

The infant son of Lawrence Hulbert of Selma choked to death one day this week on a bean which he drew down his windpipe while at play.

The strike of 650 members of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union against Selz, Schwab & Co., which was responsible for the recently settled general lockout of 4000 men, was called off this week by the Workers' District Council. The strike was called nearly three months ago. The union men are instructed to obtain their former places if possible at the firm's own terms.

The fight that was to be between Jeffries and Munroe has been declared off, and the two men rematched to meet on August 26th or 27th, each having posted a forfeit of $2500 to be in the ring at the proper time on one of the above dates, to be determined later on.

Over 600 bodies have so far been recovered from the wrecked steamer Slocum.

The Russians lost 7000 men at the battle of Vafangow.

A democratic exchange says Roosevelt wants to succeed himself in 1908. Pretty good for a democrat to acknowledge that he will be president up to that date.

The town of Hopland, Mendocino county, was destroyed by fire Sunday. 20 horses perished in one stable.

Over 500 girls are now employed at Lodi in the fruit packing and canning establishments. They earn from $1 to $1.75 per day.

Jacob Eppinger, the grain speculator, is now on trial for having defrauded his creditors. The case is being tried in Judge Lawlor's court.

Camp Fires.

Campers should be very careful this season about fire. The unusual growth of grass during the spring has left a heavy covering of dry straw on the ground. A spark from a camp-fire or the burning embers of an unextinguished fire may cause the loss of thousands. It only takes a few minutes to cover the fire with dirt or throw on a few pails of water. Take the time. It means peace of mind to you, and may mean much to ranchers and stock men.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever: nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Interesting Court Proceeding

In the Superior Court last Monday a petition was presented to set aside a decree of distribution entered some time ago in favor of the widow of E. R. Hanford, deceased. The petition was argued by Attorney F. J. Solinsky and testimony in support of same was given by Wm. M. Nuner, Jr. The matter is a little out of the ordinary and a similar case has not before appeared in this court. According to law, when an estate is valued at less than $1500 is directed that the Court award the same for distribution to the widow. This was done in this case, but the widow again married before distribution was made and the children seek to have the order set aside. The matter was submitted to the Court for a decision.—Calaveras Chronicle.

A $400,000 Damage Suit.

The damage suit for $400,000 brought some time ago by Gilbert E. Gould against J. J. Schmadeke and the Libra Mining Company was disposed of in a short space of time in the superior court last Tuesday. The complaint claimed that Schmadeke, as representative of the Libra Mining Co., executed to J. F. Clapp a bond for the sale of the so-called Blair mine at Angels, and that the company failed to keep the agreement to convey the property, and sued for a breach of contract. Defendants appeared Tuesday represented by Attorneys F. J. Solinsky and F. B. Shea, but the plaintiff and his attorneys failed to appear. Defendants introduced evidence, and the court directed that a decree be entered to the effect that plaintiff get nothing and that defendant get judgment and costs of action.—Citizen.

Off for Ione.

Prof. Williams and his grammar grade pupils hired two rigs Friday evening and started on their way rejoicing to attend the commencement exercises of the Ione union high school. The party arrived in Ione and succeeded in taking in the town before the evening's exercises began. The programme proved to be a most interesting one, and so delighted the young people from Jackson that they concluded to attend the dance that had been arranged to take place after the entertainment. The Prof. objected at first, but being only one out of a dozen, and all of them grammar grade graduates at that, he was finally overruled and had to submit gracefully. Being a man who is not only heavy set but rather set in his way, he landed in the surrey on the homeward trip with a solidity that boded ill for those who sat on the opposite side. All the occupants noticed how the vehicle tipped his way, and remarked that they believed they would tip over. Williams only grinned and awaited his opportunity. Finally the horses shied and Williams, so the driver says, threw his ponderous weight on the lower side and over went the rig with all its occupants. The professor got up laughing, thinking that he had at last played even with a lot of them at least. When daylight appeared it was noticed that his hair was almost white, showing that he himself had been badly frightened. No one was hurt, and the class agreed to pay all damages if Williams would agree not to tell the reporters.

Governor Pardee Commutes Several Sentences Before Going East.

Governor Pardee has announced the granting of the following commutation of sentences:—John Bryan of Sonoma county, to expire July 11. Bryan was sentenced to twenty years for burglary and has served twelve years. Commutation recommended by justices of the supreme court.

Richard Dalton, sentenced to six years for taking a bicycle while drunk and giving it to a stranger. Dalton has served five years.

J. J. Thornton, of Solano county, sentenced for life for robbing a trunk for a small sum of money will be set free June 27, by recommendation of sentencing judge and justices of the supreme court.

Douglas Berry, doing 100 days in the county jail of Alameda county, commuted for ill-health.

A conditional commutation has been granted in the case of Jack Brooks, sentenced for life, murder in the second degree, from Fresno county. Brooks, in company with others, made a running fight with a man named Donnelly, who was killed. After Brooks' conviction Ardall, a saloonkeeper, and Rice, a police officer, were tried on the same charge, and it was proved that Brooks did not fire the fatal shot. Rice was cleared on the ground that as a peace officer he was justified in shooting. Brooks will be free in 1906, and the governor holds that according to the supreme court he demonstrated a vindictiveness in pursuing and shooting at Donnelly that was not warranted, and he should be punished to some extent.

Celebration at Plymouth.

Plymouth has a clear field this year so far as celebrations are concerned in Amador county. That she will be equal to the task she has undertaken no one doubts for a moment. Her people are enterprising and never do things by halves. All that is on the program will be carried out to the letter. It will be worth your time and money to see the three curios spoken of in the Ledger some time ago, two of which are at Coster's drug store and one at Norman Wheeler's residence. It will undoubtedly be one of the grandest celebrations ever held in this county.

The game wardens made three arrests during the week for shooting doves out of season. One in Jackson and two in Amador. One $25 and one $50 fine was paid. The other case is pending.

W. H. Glenn, of Luttrell's station, was in town Thursday. Four of his children are ill of typhoid, one of them dangerously so.

Arthur Goodall, manager of the Fremont-Gover mine, was in town Tuesday on business connected with the operation of the mine. The sand flume has been completed, and the company will now run the sand that has accumulated on the town lots through the flume. A large head of water will be turned on, after which it will only be a matter of a few days before the town will be clear of sand again. The flume will prevent its deposit hereafter. Operations will begin at the mine soon after the sand question is disposed of.

Shooting Affray.

On Friday of last week, at the Rich Gulch hotel, six miles above Mokelumne Hill, a shooting affray occurred that will long be remembered by the citizens of that place, resulting in the killing of one man and the badly wounding of another. Mr. Lench, proprietor of the hotel, had some difficulty in settling with one of his boarders by the name of Jahns, or better known as the "Crazy Dutchman." After a wordy dispute Mr. Jahns secured a horse and rode to San Andreas, where he imbibed freely and told of his troubles. In the afternoon he obtained a rifle and asserted that he was going back to the hotel at Rich Gulch and even up matters by killing Mr. Lench. With the matter weighing heavily upon his mind he proceeded to carry out his threat. Arriving at the hotel the first person he saw was bartender Evans, a relative by marriage of the proprietor, and raising his gun he shot Evans squarely in the forehead, killing him instantly. Mr. Lench hearing the shooting seized his shot gun and ran to the relief of Evans, where he beheld Jahns trying to get another cartridge into the rifle. Taking in the situation he raised his gun and shot Jahns through the right shoulder, inflicting an ugly and painful wound, but not necessarily a fatal one. Dr. Endicott of Jackson was called in consultation with a Calaveras doctor. They carefully dressed the wound, and the authorities took the wounded man to San Andreas on Saturday. Mr. Lench is a highly respected citizen of his locality. Evans was about 27 years of age, a good citizen, and esteemed by all who knew him. He leaves a young wife to mourn his untimely death. Whiskey exciting an already addled brain is said to have been the principal cause of the tragic affair.

Lodi vs. Jackson.

Sunday will be the first time that the people of Jackson have had the opportunity of witnessing two games of baseball in one day under the same management and by the same teams since the introduction of the game into the county as a Sunday pastime. Mr. Burgin, manager of the Jackson nine, has induced the Lodi team to be present on that day and play two games with the best team that it is possible to get together in this part of the county at the present time. He is sparing neither time nor money to make the stay of the visiting team a pleasant one, and at the same time he has put forth every effort to secure a home team that it will be next to impossible to defeat. Both games ought to be interesting. The Lodi boys are good players and every man of them understands the game. The blue rock shooting is also an attractive feature and will help to swell the crowd. The following is the line-up of both teams and is a sufficient guarantee that both games will be hotly contested and probably witnessed by the greatest number of people that ever assembled on Dwyer's hill;

The American Eagle.

Sheriff Norman has added another to his extensive collection of curios in the shape of a real American eagle. The bird was killed by C. H. Page of the Standard Electric Company, and presented to Mr. Norman, who sent it to W. J. Hackmeier, taxidermist of San Francisco, and had it mounted, showing the bird in a position ready to battle with an enemy. It measures six feet from tip to tip, and is beautifully feathered, making it a rare specimen of its kind. It will occupy a prominent position in the office, and will no doubt be the main attraction of the court house for some time, notwithstanding the popular county officials. The deer head showing the moss covered antlers is said to be one of the finest specimens ever mounted in San Francisco. The sheriff and his deputies take pleasure in showing the curios to persons who visit the office.

A Record Breaker.

Last Sunday was a record breaker for matrimonial ventures in Jackson. Four couples were joined for life or otherwise, and set sail on voyages that may be smooth and profitable or rocky and turbulent, as they choose to make them. Marriage licenses have been in great demand so far during leap year, and if the ratio continues the revenue from this source will be greater than for many years. This ought to show to the marriageable young men that the girls are willing to make a venture, and are not afraid to say so when it comes their turn to have the say.

Farewell Party.

Friday evening a number of the young people of Jackson gathered at Love's hall on invitation of a committee who had arranged a farewell to Miss Mary Hall, who left the next morning for an extended visit with an uncle in Seattle. Singing, dancing, and social chat made the evening pass pleasantly. At a late hour the young folks wished Miss Hall a pleasant journey and a safe return to the home of her friends.

Gone East.

J. H. Lowry, of Pine Grove, who has lived in Amador county for fifty years, started for Utah last week to visit a brother whom he has not seen for many years. After a short stay in Utah the two brothers will go to their old home in Illinois, and from there to the world's fair at St. Louis. Mr. Lowry expects to be gone about three months. He will resume his business in Pine Grove after he returns.

Bring your best girl and your friend's girl, if he is away, and let her spend an enjoyable evening at the N. S. G. W. ball on June 25th at Love's hall.

FROM OUTSIDE PRECINCTS

PLYMOUTH.

PLYMOUTH, June 22.

The preparations for the Fourth of July celebration have become noticeable. The grand stand is nearing completion.

Mrs. Carrie Tiffany, who has been attending the grand Parlor of the N. D. G. W. at Pacific Grove, as delegate, returned yesterday. She also visited in San Francisco and Oakland.

The contest for the Goddess of Liberty proved to be quite an interesting feature last Monday evening, it being the evening that the election closed. It was a very difficult problem to choose one from the three contestants, as they were all of the same qualifications, being pretty, amiable, and with unblemished characters as well as many other favorable qualities. At about 10:30 Monday night, it was announced to the many eager voters that Miss Maggie Slavich had proved victorious and had been elected as our Goddess of Liberty.

Miss Mae Levaggi, who has been attending High School in San Francisco, returned home last week.

Mrs. Boyson started Sunday morning for Texas, from whence she will go to visit the World's Fair.

Harry and Sherman Coster and Will Mooney returned from the mountains Saturday.

Miss Mary Weston has gone to Oleta where she will visit friends and relatives.

Mr. Slavich and son George were passengers on the incoming Carbondale stage last night. They have been visiting relatives in San Jose.

At the last regular meeting of Forest Parlor, No. 86, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Pres., Susie Culbert; 1st Vice Pres., Sadie Tippetts; 2nd Vice Pres., Clara Steiner; 3rd Vice Pres., Lucy Clark; Rec. Sec., Laura Dugan; Fin. Sec., Carrie Tiffany; Tres., Ella Adams; Marshal, Maggie Slavich; Trustees, Clara Steiner, Mary Davis and Sadie Tippetts; O. S, Etta Mae Herrill; I. S., Mary Burke; Organist, Carrie Tiffany; Physicians, Drs. Tiffany and Norman.

HANS.

AMADOR CITY.

AMADOR CITY, June 20.

Everette Martin, who has been attending high school at Marysville, is home on his vacation.

Miss Cora Wrigglesworth was over from Jackson last week.

Mrs. Reeves and son Clarence went to Sacramento Sunday.

Fred Setzer went to Lodi last week on a business trip.

Mrs. Stout, who has been visiting relatives in this city, returned to her home in Sacramento Sunday.

J. R Tregloan made another trip to San Francisco last week.

Mrs. J. A. Bennetts and daughter, Louise, left Saturday for Vallejo on an extended visit.

Wm. Mooney and Harry Coster have returned from the mountains.

Mrs. Sowden of the Gwin is the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. Thomas.

Miss Reed returned to her home at Pine Grove Wednesday.

Fred Ball was over from Plymouth Saturday.

Mrs. Allen and Miss Daisy Fox went to Jackson Tuesday.

E. LOIS.

VOLCANO ITEMS.

Bert Clute and family, from Menlo, are paying Mr. Clute's mother a long delayed visit. Mr. Clute has numerous friends in and around Volcano who are always glad to see him.

J. F. Clute has gone to the city for a short vacation.

J. S. Clark moved his family to Jackson Monday, where they will reside during the summer.

Mr. Rodgers of Gilroy, and his niece, Mrs. Walker, of San Luis Obispo, are spending a short time at the home of Mrs. Benj. Ross.

Mr. Devencenzi, whose home is in Pioneer district, but who has been mining near town during the winter, is confined to his room from an attack of congestion.

Miss Clorinda Cassinelli, a prominent teacher of San Francisco, and daughter of L. Cassinelli, is spending her vacation with her parents.

T. J. Quinn, our blacksmith, is the busiest man in town these days. He is certainly doing a rushing business.

Owen Gillick was in from Rancheria mine Sunday. He reports everything in good shape, with fair prospects of opening up a good paying proposition.

Several of the young men went to Sutter Creek Saturday evening and joined the order of N. S. G. W.

Dr. Freiman does not find time to come into town from Pioneer unless sent for on an urgent call. He is going night and day, attending to typhoid cases.

One or two strangers were in town during the past week looking after mining properties.

The Madrone mill will start about the 15th of July.

Owing to the use of a large quantity of water in the Big Elephant, the Glenn has had to close for a short time. The last run yielded over $250 per month to the man. With the milling facilities this is a grand showing for the little mine.

At the old Treadwell mine they are building a substantial little mill and putting in expensive flumes for carrying water from the creek for power.

A $20 nugget was picked up in the Devencenzi claim one day last week. They will clean up in about one week.

The Big Elephant will shut down about the 4th. The boys will buy firecrackers with their dust on that occasion.

Marsino & Sons ran into gravel last week that prospected $3 to the pan. The gold was coarse and heavy.

The young people gave Miss Elsie Clark a farewell party at Armory hall Saturday evening. Dancing was the feature of the occasion. A most enjoyable time was had by all.

Notes By the Way.

June 19—I send a few notes dotted down while traveling on the train between Cheyenne and Denver. It was nearly midnight before we got fairly started on the trip to the World's Fair from the Sacramento depot, the delay of nearly an hour being occasioned by the congestion of passenger traffic incident to the excursion rates to St. Louis. The increased travel and the confusion necessarily arising from the stopover privileges allowed to tourists, are the terror of the conductors all along the line. The remark is freely made by railroad employes that they hope there will never be another world's fair. From start to finish this cry of distress is more or less heard. Having ample time during the seven hours' stay in Sacramento, I did not order tickets in advance. It took the agent one and a half hours to make out the two tickets for myself and Mrs. Webb. It was not owing to delay in deciding upon the route. That was soon settled, going by the Central Pacific and Union Pacific, by way of Denver, and return by way of New Orleans and the Sunset route. The tickets are frequently a yard long, and the mapping out of the route by the sections of the tickets is a study for the agents. The ticket holder often gets mixed as to the course of procedure on the route, and the conductors and other officials get puzzled at every turn to unravel the mysteries of these wonderful excursion tickets.

Through the Sierras in night time and the sagebrush state in day light the trip was without special interest. The writer passed through Nevada thirty years ago, and while towns along the railroad have grown, in several cases, beyond recognition since the early 70's, the general characteristics of the treeless, sagebrush waste remains the same. That this uninviting desert possesses vast agricultural possibilities is evident from what has been accomplished in isolated spots. The valley of the Humboldt, now surrendered to stockraising, awaits but the magic touch of irrigation to transform it into smiling fields of grain and garden, equaling in fertility the watered regions of Utah and Colorado.

Reaching Ogden early Thursday morning we took a side trip to Salt Lake City, remaining there until next morning. This creation of the Latter Day Saints—founded in 1874 by Brigham Young and his fellow religious zealots under the impression that Gentile ways would not reach their wilderness home for a century—is conceded at this day to be a model city. Those Mormon pioneers—whatever may be said of their doctrinal teaching—planned wisely and well as regards their temporal Zion. What impresses the visitor with admiration are the living streams flowing on either side of the streets. These advantages are not possessed to anything like the same extent in any other city of its size in the United States. In the center of these thoroughfares are placed the electric poles for power and light—another feature peculiar to Salt Lake. On either side the street car lines are operated, one side for the outgoing and the other side for the incoming cars. There is no confusion, and no danger in getting on or off the cars of colliding with passing cars. Such an arrangement of course would not be practicable were it not for the unusual width of the streets, there being ample room for other vehicle traffic outside the car lines. It is never found necessary to cross the car lines by drivers of buggies or wagons. Salt Lake is growing apace. Her business men predict a population of 100,000 in 1906.

A more detailed account of sights at Salt Lake and also at Denver we must reserve for a future occasion. We are now in Denver, Sunday noon, and about to start for St. Louis, both in good health and enjoying the trip thoroughly.

Grammar Grade Failures.

Quite a number of grammar grade applicants failed at the recent examination. This should in nowise discourage these young people, but rather act as an incentive to do better work another year. No teacher can prepare pupils for a test examination unless the pupils are willing to do their part. It is no waiting or putting off proposition on the part of either teacher or pupil, but means hard work from the first day of the term to the last. It often happens that an applicant is well prepared, but through nervousness or fright is unable to do herself justice and consequently fails. In this case a written examination is no test of her ability, and works a seemingly hardship upon her. But nine out of every ten will acknowledge later on that the year's review which they were compelled to take did them a world of good. Never be discouraged over a failure. All that others have done you can do. Try again.

Calling on Friends.

G. A. Waltenspiel, laboratory chemist of Lengfeld's Prescription Pharmacy, 202 Stockton St., San Francisco, is spending his vacation in Jackson. Mr. Waltenspiel was for many years chemist at the Spagnoli drug store in this place, and while here made numerous friends, who are glad to have him with us again even for a short time.

Road and Poll Tax.

Remember taxpayers that this is the last week in which you have to pay your road and poll tax before the 50% penalty is added. Don't delay. I will be in my office early and late during the week, or you can pay to those authorized to receive the same in your respective townships.

JACK MARCHANT,
Assessor and Collector.

Jackson, June 24, 1904.

The people of Pine Grove do not intend to let the 4th go by entirely unnoticed. They will give a grand ball in the evening under the management of Balentine and Webster. Posters announcing the same are being printed at this office.

Ledger and Chicago Weekly Inter-Ocean, both papers one year for $2 50 in advance.

NOTES FROM GOLD MINES

The Bunker Hill, Keystone, Central Eureka, Oneida, Kennedy and Zeila, are running with full crews both night and day.

FREMONT-GOVER—The sand question is now retarding the starting up of this property. It is to be hoped that the owners of the town lots will look to their own interests and not expect exorbitant damages for fancied injuries.

EMPIRE-PACIFIC—Rumors are afloat that the Empire or Pacific, and probably both, will be operated again in the near future. The unsettled condition of labor has been taken into consideration by the owners.

BAY STATE—This mine in Plymouth district is said to be running with the usual number of men. The prospects are growing more favorable every day of this mine developing into a good paying property.

WILDMAN-MAHONEY—A few men are doing top work preparatory to operating these mines. Superintendent Ross is in San Francisco on business connected with these properties.

SOUTH EUREKA—The mill is still silent and mining operations are virtually at a standstill. For some reason unknown to many of the stockholders active operations were suspended after a $15,000 clean-up for the last month's run.

ARGONAUT — Operations are progressing favorably at this mine. The stockholders are looking forward to the time when this will again become the most famous bullion producer in the county.

School Entertainment.

We unintentionally omitted the school entertainment last week. The affair was a most creditable one, and young people who work and make a success of such things so early in life should be given every encouragement to stimulate them to greater efforts. There was no feature of the entertainment that did not bring credit to those who took part. The singing was exceptionally good, while the instrumental music and recitations were all that could be expected from pupils of their ages. The farce was well rendered and greatly pleased the parents and friends present. Great credit is due those who assisted the young people in becoming so proficient in their work.

Typhoid.

Typhoid is quite prevalent in Jackson, and is raging in the Pioneer section. It came apparently without a cause, and is spreading in both places. Those towns and localities not yet affected by it should take every precaution to avoid the dreaded malady. Those who have any symptoms of the disease should not hesitate to consult their family physician. If taken in time it may be checked, but if neglected at first it must run its course. One lady in Pioneer has been down 50 days. If she recovers it will leave her in an emaciated condition, and perhaps impair her health for years to come. Now is the time to be careful, and prevent its further spread if possible.

Stop Piping.

A few days ago one of the debris commissioners arrived in Volcano and made an inspection of the various hydraulic mines. He visited the Elephant claim and expressed himself as perfectly satisfied with dams, etc., and told the men to go ahead. A few days after his return to Sacramento the company received word to stop piping. Just what it all means no one seems to know. It would be a great injustice to these men, after having worked so faithfully to uncover the gravel, not to be allowed to clean up properly. There must be something wrong with the report that we received, or else some underhanded work has been going on.

Paid the Penalty.

Francesca Ochoa who murdered Marie Barrie at Bakersfield in 1899 was executed Friday morning last, June 10, at 9:30 o'clock at the San Quentin Prison. Ochoa ascended the scaffold and when the noose was brought to him he thrust his head through the loop. Such an act was never before seen at the prison. The trap was sprung at 9:28 but Ochoa was not pronounced dead until 9:46. This is the longest time that any one executed at the prison has ever lingered. Ochoa was 40 years of age and had been an inmate of the condemned row since October. Ochoa was born and reared to manhood's estate in the town of West Point in this county.—Calaveras Chronicle.

Set Free.

The negro minstrel who was arrested last week upon a complaint sworn to by U S Gregory was discharged by the district attorney last Saturday. We understand that Gregory did not care to press the case further, and as no serious damage had been done to any one Vicini concluded that the week's incarceration would answer as a reminder to the young fellow not to get saucy when traveling through Amador county.

Grand Officers.

The grand parlor N. D. G. W. favored Amador county last week by electing Mrs. Ella Caminetti grand president, and re-electing Miss Laura J. Frakes to the grand secretaryship. Both officers are ladies of ability, and will be an honor to the positions to which they have been elected.

Go Visiting.

A score or more of Jackson's fairest Rebekahs went to Ione Wednesday to visit the valley lodge and meet one of the grand officers, who is giving instructions in the secret and drill work of the order. They were a jolly company before starting. We have not seen them since their return.

Republican Convention.

The republican national convention has been in session all the week, but up to the time of going to press no nominations have formally been made. The nominee for president was selected by the people of the United States months before the convention met, and there is nothing left for the convention to do in that respect but to ratify the people's choice. Senator Fairbanks seems to be alone in the fight for the vice presidency, and the next republican ticket will undoubtedly be Roosevelt and Fairbanks. The convention is composed of the ablest men of the nation. Ex-Secretary Root was temporary chairman, and Speaker J. G. Cannon is permanent chairman. The framing of the platform and appointing of committees has occupied the time so far. The California delegation has received favorable consideration in the selection of committees. The platform as outlined is a strong one, and it seems to be the prevailing opinion of all the delegates that the republican nominees will be chosen by the largest majority ever given to presidential candidates since the organization of the republican party.

Baseball at the Hill.

The Jackson team went to Mokelumne Hill Sunday and took part in a close and exciting game, the score at the close standing 9 to 10 in favor of the Hill boys. Tell us a different story next time boys. We would like to chronicle something new.

Bad Indeed.

Losing flesh is indeed a bad sign. Take Scott's Emulsion for it. For weak digestion, for defective nourishment, for consumption, take Scott's Emulsion. It restores flesh because it strikes to the cause of the loss.

Mokelumne Hill Will Celebrate.

The citizens of the town have dug down in their jeans and put up the necessary wherewith to have a grand celebration on the coming Fourth, and the necessary preparations are now going on under the charge of a competent committee. The town will be decorated from top to bottom, and the day will be ushered in by the firing of a salute and the rendering of national airs by the band. Jacob P. Snyder of San Andreas will deliver an oration, and Miss Maud Day, daughter of F. H. Day of this place, will read the Declaration of Independence, also singing by a glee club. During the forenoon there will be athletic sports of every description held on the plaza, to the winners of which good prizes will be given. At two o'clock in the afternoon a match game of baseball will be played on the Juri diamond for a purse of $50 between the San Andreas and Jackson clubs. Then there will be a flag drill by twenty young ladies, and a 20-round glove contest for a purse of $100, the whole to conclude with a grand ball in the evening.—Calaveras Chronicle.

New Secretary.

C. H. Johnson was recently selected as secretary of the board of trustees of the Preston School. Mr. Johnson receives $100 per month for his services. He formerly published a Labor paper in Sacramento.

A Strong Heart

is assured by perfect digestion. Indigestion swells the stomach and puffs it up against the heart. This causes shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and general weakness. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures indigestion, relieves the stomach, takes the strain off the heart and restores it to a full performance of its function naturally. Kodol increases the strength by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and appropriate to to the blood and tissues all of the food nutriment. Tones the stomach and digestive organs. Sold by City Pharmacy.

Preston School Contracts.

We notice that many of the contracts let by the board of trustees for the furnishing of supplies for the Preston School were given to local men. This is a move in the right direction. So long as the business men of Ione can furnish the supplies at reasonable rates they should be allowed to do so. The success of any new institution depends largely upon the good will of the people in the community wherein it is located. At the present time the school is receiving stronger support from the citizens of Ione than it has received for years. The letting of these contracts will tend to strengthen rather than retard this feeling.

Easy riding saddles, collars that fit, and whips that pop at Piccardo's.

Runaway.

An exciting runaway occurred on Broadway Tuesday, in which Charley Tam and a frightened horse were the principal actors. Charley was thrown from the cart and bruised a little. The cart, which belonged to Pete Cassinelli, was somewhat demolished, and the horse when caught was tied in a near-by barn to let him cool off and get over his fright before taking him home. A defective bridle caused the trouble.

THE BAD RUPEE.

Bahram Got Rid of It, but Not the Way He Intended.

"There lived in Rampur, India, a vender of sweetmeats named Bahram, whose wife had weak eyes," said the story teller. "One day this man went to see a friend at the bazaar, and he left his stall in the woman's charge. 'Be careful, mind you, about the change,' he said to her. But nevertheless when he returned home he found that she had taken in a bad rupee piece. He could hardly sleep that night for rage and sorrow. In the morning he arose early, and, determined to get rid of the bad rupee, he set out through the town. Soon he met a boy.

"'Boy,' he said, 'do you know the sweetmeat shop of Ali?' (Ali was a rival vender.) 'Well, take this rupee, go to Ali's shop and spend a pice for sweetmeats there. The sweetmeats you may keep; I want the change.'

"The boy departed merrily and in a little while returned with his mouth full.

"'So you got the change without trouble, eh?' said the man as he counted it. 'And did Ali make no examination of the rupee?'

"'Oh,' said the boy, 'I didn't go as far as Ali's. I got the sweetmeats at Bahram's shop.'"—London Modern Society.

ROCK FORMATION.

In One Sense Stones Do Grow, and In Another They Do Not.

Rocks do not grow in the sense that plants do. They may increase in size by means of accretion, and they may also undergo other changes. Old sea beds, lifted up and exposed for ages, become stratified beds of sandstone or limestone; volcanic ashes and lava strewn over hills and plains become tufa, hard enough for building stone, and the pebbly shores of rivers and smaller streams may sometimes change into conglomerates. The simple mineral, however, does grow, especially when it takes upon itself the form of a crystal. A sparkling prism of quartz increases from an atom to monster crystals of varying length and size by what geologists know as a "process of addition and assimilation."

This process is wonderfully slow, but with a mathematical exactness that is a surprise to persons even "well up" in the science of geology. In one sense stones grow; in another they do not. The crystal may become longer and larger, but the bowlder on the roadside will not increase a hairbreadth in length or width in the next 10,000 years.

Most Horrible of All Dreams.

No words are strong enough to point out the danger of slow poisoning by drugs which are often taken to procure sleep, whether it be an alcoholic nightcap, morphine, opium, chloral or any other. The medical man has recourse with reluctance to these as a last and temporary resort, and only he can tell how many lives are wrecked by the ill timed use of them and their subsequent abuse. Of all horrible dreams none is so awful as those which assail people who habitually use these false comforters. Better than all the drugs in the world for procuring sleep are simple food, a regular life and a calm mind.—Cassell's.

Its Hurtful Sedentary Habit.

"I think," said the meditative boy, "that a wasp would be all right if it didn't get tired."

"Eh?" replied his father. "Where did you get that idea?"

"Why, one day I got a wasp on my hand, and while he was walking around he was all right. He didn't hurt till he stopped to sit down."—Philadelphia Press.

His Impolite Query.

"Women claim that the way to get on with a man is to give him plenty of nicely cooked food."

"Well," answered Mr Sirius Barker irritably, "why don't some of them try it?"—Washington Star.

CURIOUS WORSHIP.

The Custom of Throwing Prayers at an Idol In Japan.

Along the sacred road of Nikko, in Japan, is an idol about which centers one of the most curious worships in the world. Upon the surface of the statue are seen little pieces of what appears to be dried paper. If you stand by the idol for awhile and wait for a worshiper to come along, you will see what these bits of paper are. The devotee halts in front of the image, then scribbles a prayer on a bit of the paper. The wad he then chews up into a ball and hurls at the god. If it hits the face and sticks, the prayer is sure to be granted, and the pious pilgrim goes away happy. If the ball sticks to some portion of the body, the omen is not quite so propitious, and if it falls to the ground there is absolutely no hope.

Such a mode of prayer is even more curious than the praying wheels of the Buddhists, who set the wheel revolving and reel off prayers by machinery. As John L. Stoddard, the lecturer, said: "One sees, of course, numberless strange rites connected with religion in traveling about the world, but Japan is the only land I have ever visited where deities serve as targets for masticated prayers!"

People Who Rarely Wink.

There are people who rarely wink. How they manage to get along without doing so is a marvel, but somehow or other they do. Some eyes are naturally more moist than others, and the very moist eye does not so much need the assistance of the lids to keep the eyeball bright. It is a constitutional matter, for winking, though under the control of the will, is done so quickly that it is practically an involuntary action. Men wink when they feel that the eye is uncomfortably dry, and when it does not become dry the necessity for winking is not felt.

To Preserve the Color of Flowers.

A way to preserve the colors of flowers when pressing them is to immerse the stem of the fresh plant in a solution of 31 grains of alum, 4 of niter and 186 of water for a day or two, until the liquid is absorbed, then press the plant in the usual way, sift some dry sand over the flower and submit to a gentle heat for about twenty hours.

The Funny Bone.

A most unpleasant sensation is caused by the violent excitation of the ulnar nerve due to a blow on the elbow. This nerve passes down on the inner side of the arm and then rather inconsiderately bends round and enters the forearm at the back of the elbow joint. Any one who has felt his neighbor's elbow sticking into his ribs knows that the elbow is remarkably deficient in flesh. The nerve is therefore at this point very near the surface and has little to shield it from a blow. If we are so unfortunate as to give our elbow a smart tap we obtain a practical confirmation of the fact that the ulnar nerve is the principal sensory nerve of the forearm and hand.

Nature and Woman.

"Nature never grows old," said Barlow.

"Yes, she does," said Hawkins, "but she is enough of a woman to be able to conceal her age effectually."

MRS. CECELIA STOWE,
Orator, Entre Nous Club.

176 Warren Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.

For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Cecelia Stowe

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weaknes and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

PARAMOUNT

Black Stallion by the great Altamont 3600, will make the season of 1904 at

and surrounding towns.

Address F. L. CREASON, IONE P. O.

PARAMOUNT is one of the handsomest horses in the state and his breeding is of the very best. Those who raise colts by this beautiful young horse can consider themselves fortunate. A tougher, more hardy, or better formed horse never lived. His sire "Old Altamont" was the greatest sire of extreme speed in his day, having seven in the 2:10 list. There are but two or three of his sons in the State, and Paramount out-classes them all in beauty and breeding. Paramount's dam, Nancy, by Engineer, son of the Great Electioneer, was a beautiful mare with extreme speed but never was raced.
